

William Stanford Davis - Fargo

William Stanford Davis, born and raised in St. Louis, Missouri, is no stranger to stage and screen. With over 60 TV and Film credits to date Stan continues to show his versatility with his most recent appearances on Fox's "Bones" in the role of Judge Floyd Barber, and as Detective Gilson on "Accused at 17" for Lifetime. His many theatre credits have honored him with an Ovation Nomination for Best Actor in a Supporting Role in the 2006 Actors Studio Production of August Wilson's FENCES for his portrayal of Bono. He also performed with the Musical Production, NORTH ON SOUTH CENTRAL which won five NAACP theatre awards in 2004. Other theatre credits include: THE ANTEROOM, also for the Actors Studio, The Circle West Production of LEGACIES at The Matrix Theatre (written and directed by the late John Bishop), and the world premier of TWO SHIPS PASSING at The Pan Andreas Theater in Hollywood. As well as his busy acting life, Stan has directed a number of productions including Lawrence Fishburne's play, RIFF RAFF, a production of SHAME at the Elephant Asylum Theater, and THE OLD SETTLER for Camelot Artists at the Beverly Hills Playhouse. William is a lifetime member of the Actors Studio and has taught and directed actors for over twelve years. Contact: Pallas Management Tel: 818-981-8368
